In the December 2006 issue, Special Events Magazine ranked The Arrangers, a Denver based Destination Management Company (DMC), as one of the "25 Top" DMCs in the world. 2006 is the first time The Arrangers has made the prestigious list giving the 37-year old company world-wide recognition with over a thousand destination management companies spanning the globe.

In 2006, The Arrangers produced over 145 client programs ranging from teambuilding for ten VIPs to a private concert at Red Rocks for nearly 3,000 convention attendees. "We excel at switching modes from one event to the next – formal galas to rustic ranches, limos to motorcoaches, sporting events to team-building, all within a week, days or sometimes even minutes," says Nicole Marsh, CMP, DMCP, The Arrangers Owner and President. "We are honored to be among the top in our field."

Special Events Magazine reported an 11 percent increase in the number of events handled by DMCs this year over last and 14 percent increase in revenue world-wide, which certainly holds true for The Arrangers. Up over forty programs this year, the company has worked with 148 clients and handled nearly 400 events, bringing in projected year-end revenue just below a record $4.8 million, a 46% increase from 2005.

The Arrangers Destination Management and Event Planning Company provide creativity and production for many of Colorado's award-winning events.
