

20 February 2011

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

What Happens in Vegas... Arrangers DMC wins big at ADME Awards!

Denver, CO... What Happens in Vegas, Doesn't Stay in Vegas for The Arrangers! We're excited to share that The Arrangers, a DMC Network Company, brought home four of the 13 awards from the Association of Destination Management Executives (ADME) 2011 Achievement Awards held at Red Rock Casino & Spa in Las Vegas held on February 19th. Eat your heart out Enimen!

The Arrangers took home two individual event awards including "Best Recreational Activity" and "Best Tour Program." Nicole Marsh, DMCP, CMP, was also given the industry's top honor as she was named Destination Management Professional of the Year and also received the Joanne O'Connor President's Award, recognizing her for the contributions made to the organization over the last year.

More than sixty entries were received for events presented between 1 September 2009 – 31 August 2010. Judges from prominent industry organizations reviewed applications from individual DMCs and rated them based on originality, innovation and solutions provided to challenges presented. All winners are listed at www.ADME.org with links to the storyboards that explain their award winning event.

The Arrangers, a DMC Network Company, services clients throughout Colorado including Denver, Colorado Springs, Vail, Aspen and other Rocky Mountain Resorts. The 42 year old company provides create and cost effective solutions for special events, transportation, teambuilding, group tours and meeting logistics.

For more information on The Arrangers, please contact Nicole Marsh, CMP, DMCP, President & CEO at nicole@arrangers.com or 303.623.1492. For more information on ADME, contact Fran Rickenbach, ADME Executive Vice President at info@adme.org or at 937.586.3727.

###