Karl Heitz successfully completed the Destination Management Certified Professional (DMCP) examination held February 2006. The designation is given to candidates who have demonstrated a high level of knowledge and performance within the Destination Management Industry. Requirements for the designation include having been a member of the industry for a minimum of three years and have shown a professional level of responsibility and accountability in the successful completion of Destination Management Programs.

Karl is currently the incoming President Elect of the Rocky Mountain ISES Chapter and will become the current President in June 2006. Karl has been an active member in ISES since 2001 and has resided on the board for the past four years.
